Donna and her mobile!

A brand new opera by Sheffield City Opera

Musical Director: Robert Webb

#its complicated

Artistic Director: Matthew Palfreyman

Donna and Joe are achingly in love. Enter local glitterati couple, Des and Norma. A jaded Des has set his sights on the dewy Donna. Meanwhile Norma, Des's bored trophy wife, is drawn to lovely Joe.

None shall sleep until Des and Norma achieve their desires.

In this they are aided by Des's engaging side-kick, Figaro. He may or may not be linked with mobile phone postings that instantly go viral on social media.

Soon, Donna's loving father, Arthur, gets involved, putting himself in some danger.

The action mainly takes place in Des's Bar. Amongst the partygoers are a group of mobile-toting women – edgy sisters bent on bother. New words, new settings transform familiar operatic arias and choruses.

Listen as traditional opera favourites spark in new ways in this groundbreaking new opera.
